Luke 6:12-16 (ESV)

In these days he went out to the mountain to pray, and all night he continued in prayer to God.

¹³And when day came, he called his disciples and chose from them twelve, whom he named apostles: ¹⁴Simon, whom he named Peter, and Andrew his brother, and James and John, and Philip, and Bartholomew, ¹⁵and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot,

¹⁶ and Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

DEFINING MOMENTS: Christlike Squad Goals

LUKE 6:12-16

1. What are some areas in your life where you need to spend time in devoted and dedicated prayer? How would praying about these decisions affect how you approach them? How will you structure your prayer time to be focused on delighting in the father?
2. What are some practical ways you can help train up the next generation of church leaders? Jesus implemented a small group for developing disciples. Could you use such a tool in your life and ministry?
3. How is it comforting to know that our job is not to secure certain ends, but to commit ourselves to certain means? How does this free you from certain burdens and make some decisions much easier?

Quote for the Week. . .

by Samuel Brengle

“Spiritual leadership is not won by promotion, but by prayers and tears. It is attained by much heart-searching and humbling before God; by self-surrender, a courageous sacrifice of every idol, a bold uncompromising, and uncomplaining embracing of the cross, and by an eternal, unfaltering looking unto Jesus crucified. This is a great price, but it must be unflinchingly paid by him who would be a real spiritual leader of men, a leader whose power is recognized and felt in heaven, on earth and in hell.”
